This week we will be having a 'sports day' theme running through our home to celebrate our 'Stay at home sports day'.

English

- Write a newspaper report of your home sports day. – perhaps use the computer and add your own photos into your report.
- This week in the daily sessions we are going to be looking at 'The Highwayman' the poem by Alfred Noyes. We studied this briefly in our guided reading sessions. Some of the tasks ask you to cut and stick but don't worry if you can't print out at home, just write into your books or adapt the tasks so that you can have a go. Some of this work might be a little challenging as some tasks deal with tenses. Remember that a past perfect action (verb) was started and completed in the past and uses the auxiliary verb 'had'. R.E

This week we are going to learn a special prayer called 'The Angelus', in some churches the Angelus is said twice a day, at 2pm and 6pm, some churches even ring a bell to remind us to say this special prayer.

The Angelus reminds us of events of The Annunciation when the Angel Gabriel appeared to Mary and told her that she had been chosen by God to bring his son Jesus into the world. Read the following scripture from Luke's Gospel to remind yourself of events at the Annunciation (Luke 1:26-38) or you can watch the following clip at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VrYvuYwPAvU>.

I have attached a power point of The Angelus this week for you to use, I'd like you to write out your own version of the prayer and try to say it twice a day at 2pm and 6pm if you can. Ask an adult to say it with you and then you can have a part each.

History

Find out how and where the Olympic games originated. Create an information poster to show what you find out. The following link will give you somewhere to start but you should also conduct your own research.
