History Project: The Ancient Greeks

We will focus on this work for the next 2 weeks as there is a lot to cover. I have given you an information booklet (you can print this off or read on the screen) to help get you started but this needn't be your only source. Just like in class, I expect you to conduct your own research and find answers to the questions you want answered. I have attached a project booklet for you to work through. You can print this off at home if you have access to a printer. If you do not have access to a printer there is no need to worry. Look at the activities and the LO for each task and then complete your own version of the task to show me what you have learnt or found out about.

R.E

This Sunday was Pentecost Sunday. The term Pentecost comes from the Greek Πεντηκοστή (Pentēkostē) meaning "fiftieth". It refers to the festival celebrated on the fiftieth day after Passover, also known as the "Feast of Weeks" and the "Feast of 50 days". Watch the following video clip to remind yourself of the events at Pentecost.

Task: You can choose to create an artistic impression like the one above of the events at Pentecost or maybe write an acrostic poem which shows how the Gifts of the Holy Spirit work in us today.
