This week we are going to have a World War 2 themed week as it is the 75th anniversary of Victory in Europe.

Watch the following video 'Beyond the Lines' by clicking on the following link. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ncRsHc5bgVo>

Writing Task: Imagine you are one of the boys. What can you see, hear, smell? How are you feeling? Write a letter to a loved one at home to describe what you are experiencing.

Comprehension Tasks: Re-watch the video –

1. What clues can you discover that show us the action wasn't taking place in real time, that the boys were not actually there?
2. Why do you think the soldiers had paper faces and why do you think there were letters flying around the battlefield?
3. The older boy looks horrified, why do you think this was?
4. Why does only one soldier have a face?
5. Do you think the Grandparents wanted the boys to have explored the chest? Explain your thoughts.
6. What is a quartermaster?

Investigate the D-Day landings and find out why this day was so important to the outcome of WW2.

Draw your own map of the French coastline and label where the allied troops came from and landed. I have attached a map for you to use as a reference but you will also need to use the video clips to help you. If you watch the beginning of 'Beyond the Lines' you will notice some familiar places what battle do think the Grandad was part of?
