

Creating adverbs
using the suffix -ly (root word ends
in 'le')

Weekly Spellings

Year 3

Mon 16th November

---

gently

simply

humbly

nobly

horribly

terribly

possibly incredibly

comfortably

probably

---

Can you think of any others that follow this rule?

-----
Words with a /shuhn/ sound,
spelt with 'cian' (if root word ends in
'c' or 'cs')

---

musician

politician

electrician

magician

mathematician

dietician

statistician

technician

clinician

beautician

Weekly Spellings

Year 4

Mon 16th November

Can you think of any others that follow the rule?

