

Sorting Masks

Cut out the pictures of masks and sort them out with your partner.

There are no rules about how to sort them. Decide for yourselves. Decide on a name for each mask 'group'.

When you have finished, compare your groups to another pair's groups.

Are the 'groups' similar or different?

Photos courtesy of Anne Marie McCarrfey, anolent, Barta IV, Carlos Castillo, Mary Harrsch, (@flickr.com) – granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Photos courtesy of anoldent, Muffinn, Peter Rivera, xuanche and Tilemahos Efthimiadis (@flickr.com) – granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Photos courtesy of Cliff, Graeme Newcomb, Zeze57, Dennis Jarvis, Sharon Mollerus and The Laird of Oldham, (@flickr.com) – granted under creative commons licence - attribution