*'Happy are those who hear the word of God
and keep it' Luke 11:28*

Dear Parent/Carer,

On behalf of all the staff and Governors we wish you a wonderful family Christmas. We hope you enjoy time together making memories. We look forward to welcome you back and continuing to learn and grow in the New Year.

Canon Adrian shares this prayer with us all.

Heavenly Father,
As we rejoice to celebrate the birth of your Son Jesus this Christmas,
He who came as our loving Saviour,
May we welcome Him afresh into our lives and come one day to rejoice with Him for ever in the Kingdom of Heaven.
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen.'

Today we lit our final two candles. Our final purple candle symbolises Joy. The Joy that new life brings. The joy of family and the joy celebrated at the stable as Jesus was born. As we are not together on Christmas day we lit our white candle for Christmas day. May the day bring us Hope, Peace, Love and joy and many blessings for the year ahead.

Who do you love? Who in your family and friends are you thankful for?

*Who loves you? Do you know God loves you every day and watches over you.
You are made in his image and likeness!*

Santa Dash!!! 14th December 2022

We had an AMAZING Santa dash this week in school...snowballs, bubbles, tunnels...and...RUNNING IN THE CORRIDORS!! Thank you so much for helping us raise lots of money for school.

"I loved the Santa Dash I thought it was really fun. I loved the obstacle under the tunnel when Dan threw snowballs!" Annie Nelson, Class 3

" It was really fun we had a lovely time. Most people's best part was climbing under the tables. The medals were heavy but amazing!" Alfie Shaw, Class 4

We had some great Christmas fun – parties, yummy Christmas dinner so we share a special picture below
